Subject: Invitation to Attend Aspen Institute 2017 Senate Socrates Seminar -- October 27-29th, 2017 - - Wye River, MD

Hello Monica,

I trust that you all are well. I am reaching out to you at the suggestion of our mutual colleague, Reema Dodin, on behalf of the Aspen Institute Socrates Program about our 2017 Senate Socrates seminar in Wye River, MD on October 27-29th.

Since 2010, we have gathered a bi-partisan group of senior US Senate and House staffers together for a transformative weekend experience at Aspen's Wye River campus on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

I would be honored if you would accept my invitation to attend. Please find a description of the seminar and link to the registration site below.

Political Civility and the Role of Congress

In every non-federal election year since 2010, the Socrates Program hosts a special seminar for senior U.S. Senate and House staffers to engage with citizen-leaders on topics and issues relevant to government and society. Today more than ever, we live in a bifurcated environment, and the nature of our discourse is critical for the country's future. This year's seminar explores the role of government, government officials, and institutions in the political discourse of the nation.

Political Civility and the Role of Congress will be co-moderated by THE HONORABLE DAN GLICKMAN, Executive Director of the Aspen Institute Congressional Program, and BILL HOAGLAND, Senior Vice President of the Bipartisan Policy Center.

*Please note, we cannot accept registrations from lobbyists or journalists for this seminar.

My team stands by to assist you with the Senate ethics form so please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

- Cordell
